

1st ICC IBERIAN ARBITRATION DAY 2019

Lisbon, Portugal | 20 May 2019

Date & Venue:

20 May 2019 | LISBON, Rua das Portas de Santo Antão, 89

About the event:

Co-organized by the ICC International Court of Arbitration, ICC Spain and ICC Portugal, the 1st edition of the ICC Iberian Arbitration Day 2019 will be taking place in Lisbon, on 20 May, providing an essential update on developments in the Iberian region and in its most important markets. It will be one of the most important gathering for the Iberian arbitration community: not only does it offer a line-up of top-class speakers, topical discussions and relevant news, but also an excellent opportunity to network with experts and practitioners from the region.

Ana Serra e Moura, Deputy Secretary General of the ICC Court, will participate in this event, along with Juan Pablo Argentato, Counsel at the ICC International Court of Arbitration, as well as current Members of the ICC Court and its Secretariat, and world-class arbitration experts.

Those renowned speakers will give an overview of the most recent developments and hot topics in alternative dispute resolution worldwide, such as i) arbitration in construction disputes, ii) costs and third-party funding in international arbitration, iii) arbitration facing compliance issues, corruption allegations, determining the facts and establishing the sanctions, and iv) Data protection, privacy, transparency and cyber security in international arbitration.

Who should attend:

Practicing lawyers, arbitrators, mediators, corporate counsels, academic and professionals interested in and/or involved in international arbitration and other dispute resolution services, interested in obtaining further knowledge and keep up to date with domestic and international arbitration in Portugal and Spain.

Registration fee*:

Students: 100 euros

ICC Members: 175 euros

Non-Members: 250 euros

*The registration fee includes working documents, coffee-breaks, lunch and networking cocktail.
